CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 17.—General Sherman and his army are all right, and masters of the situation. Every point ever held by us is still in our possession. Atlanta is all right, with plenty to eat, and the short railroad break will be repaired in ten days. Hood thus far has not more men than we have, and his raid has produced no military result. He was dreadfully repulsed at Allatoona by General Carrs and his brave compeers, who deserve the thanks of the whole country for their gallant and stubborn General Sherman's Staff.

Mr. Larner introduced a bill authorizing the Mayor to extend the bounty for the encouragement of enlistments, as provided in the bill approved Aug. 11, 1864, to all persons procuring recruits for twelve months. Mr. Larner explained that under the present law those who did not put in three years' men could not receive the benefits.

Aldermen was imperfect and that under it many deserving parties would not receive benefit, among others those poor men who are unable to procure substitutes and are obliged to go in the army. Mr. Wright stated that under the Aldermen's bill men detailed in the employ of the Government at the Arsenal and Navy Yard could claim benefits. Mr. Moore moved the report be indefinitely postponed, and the whole subject be referred to a special committee, with instructions to report a bill which shall confer the bounty provided in the act of the 29th of September last, on such young men drafted, the sons er wards of bona fide residents of Washington, as have attained the age of maturity, or the military age, since the 31st day of December, 1863, and also to confer the said bounty upon such of our bona fide residents drafted as from their inabil-

Mr. Peugh moved to lay Mr. Moore's mo-tion on the table; but the chair deciding that if the motion prevailed the bill would be carried with it, Mr. Peugh withdrew his motion. FROM GEN. GRANT'S ARMY. From the Army of the James-A Reconnoissance North of the James. Special Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE JAMES, NEAR RICHMOND, Oct. 13 .- A reconnoissance in force was made on our extreme right to-day by the First and Third Divisions of the Tenth Army Corps and a portion of Kautz's Cavalry, for the purpose of developing the position of the enemy in that quarter, and to arrest the building of a new line of works which they were believed to be engaged in constructing on the

Darbytown road, about three miles from Rich-

Our forces advanced in fine style early this morning, coming upon the rebel forces when within five miles of Richmond, and drove them in good style for a couple of miles. Owing to the rapidity of our advance, the rebels fell back in such haste and confusion as to be unable to occupy the line of entrenchments extending across the Darbytown road, where the fight occurred on the 7th instant, and which have since been occupied by the troops of neither side. They made a stand, however, at their new line, about three miles from the city, and our forces finding them of considerable ordered by Gen. Terry to fall back to the line of works about four miles from Richmond, from whence Kantz's dismounted cavalry were driven on the 7th inst. The rebels, supposing our forces were retreating, made a charge upon them as they fell back to this line, and received a murderous fire from our artillery, now for the first time brought into setion, and from which they retired with heavy loss and great confusion, leaving the line of entrenchments in our possession.

Our losses in the desultory engagements, extending several hours, amount in killed and wounded to some two hundred, no prisoners wounded to some two hundred, no prisoners being taken on either side, and occurred chiefly in an unsuccessful effort made by Gen. Ames to penetrate a point in the enemy's line of entrenchments, near the Darbytown road, supposed to be less strong than elsewhere. This position being found of considerable strength, General Terry ordered that it should not be pressed, and our troops retired to the position four miles from Richmond, which is now held, as stated above, and which is not likely to be again relinquished.
